60 DAYS TO PASS

It's been a challenging and frustrating year for Master of Wine students. Restrictions on travel have prevented winery visits and lockdowns and the pressures of working from home have disrupted study groups and seminars. Luckily WineTutor.tv is here to help!

Our "Covid pivot" has been to redesign our "How to Pass" webinars to meet the needs of students sitting the exams in September 2021 taking into account the pressures and challenges of the last year.

We'll be focusing on how to overcome the restrictions that Covid has placed on travel, research and information gathering in the last twelve months, as well as a whole set of tricks, tips and techniques to help you maximise the crucial final 60 days in the run up to the exams. No matter how disrupted your studies have been in the last year, we're confident that our "60 DAYS TO PASS" webinars will give you the tool kit you need to help "get you over the line" in September.

What you've said about previous WineTutor.tv webinars:

Tim's classes are full of resources and step-by-step processes A truly practical approach and confidence builder that helped in so many ways! - Gianluca Queiroli (Italy)

Your sessions on the practical and theory exams were invaluable to my preparation for the S1A. Because of your seminars I finally understood what was expected and HOW to study. They were only one month before the exam, but in that month I was 100 times more effective in preparing and no longer felt like I was spinning my wheels - Matt Perrella (USA)

Thanks so much - I have progressed more in the last few days than the last few months! - Sarah Andrew (UK)

It was the most valuable discussion relating to the program that I've had to date. Your advice was incisive and refreshingly fundamental. I now feel I have a definite pathway towards the goal. I've also had a real jolt of motivation and inspiration as a result. - Ben Haines (Australia)
